

The Nancy Adler Memorial Enrichment Fund

The above memorial fund has been established in Nancy's memory. On March 11, 2009 at 1:30 p.m. the Fund is hosting a 1day curriculum based assembly program for the children at the BOCES school Nancy worked at for 23 years. Nancy will also be commemorated at this assembly. The program is called 'Reading Rampage' presented by ventriloquist Steve Petra and his Petra Puppets (www. petrapuppets. com). This assembly teaches language and literacy skills and the power of words in a very fun way through an interactive musical comedy and invites student participation. This company has a well known reputation for its wonderful assemblies among many school districts already and BOCES is very excited about having the opportunity for this program.
